

Northeast Bible Camp -- 2008

Morning Classes:

- I. Sunday: The right perspective
 1. Who needs to be involved in the work of the church?
 2. What are you doing in the church?
 3. What is your church already involved in?
 4. How do these compare with the kinds of things that God expect us to be doing?
 5. How can we initiate and support the work of the church?
 - i. Letting leaders know you are willing to help.
 - ii. Getting others involved.
- II. Monday: The work inside the church
 1. Men
 - i. Teaching
 - ii. Preaching
 - iii. Building projects/maintenance
 - iv. Bible Studies
 - v. Supporting those who are preaching full-time (such as those in other countries).
 - vi. Youth ministry
 2. Women
 - i. Teaching
 - ii. Fellowship
 - iii. Ministering to the Saints
- III. Tuesday: Implementing the work inside the church
 1. Men
 - i. How to prepare for the work
 - ii. How to lead others into the work
 2. Women
 - i. How to prepare for the work
 - ii. How to bring others along/applying previous day's discussion in a hypothetical church setting.
- IV. Wednesday: The work outside the church
 1. Men
 - i. Evangelism (door-to-door, etc)
 - ii. Ministry (caring for the physical needs of people; visiting those in prison, etc.)
 2. Women
- V. Thursday: Implementing the work outside the church
 1. Men
 2. Women

Morning Messages:

1. Sunday: The Barrier of Friends -- How other people can either hinder or help our labor in the kingdom.
2. Monday: The Barrier of Fear -- How fear prevents us from laboring for Christ; and how to overcome it.
3. Tuesday: The Barrier of Fatigue -- Why being "tired" is such a huge barrier to our labor; and how to handle this so that it doesn't get in the way.
4. Wednesday: The Barrier of Lacking Focus -- Why lack of focus prevents us from doing much more than we do.
5. Thursday: The Barrier of Lacking Follow Through -- The need to follow through with good intentions; and how to insure that we do this.

Evening Messages:

1. Saturday: Introduction to the week's theme of "Laboring In The Kingdom."*
2. Sunday: Because I Love Christ* -- Work as worship.
3. Monday: Because I Love The Church* -- Work as positive influence in the church.
4. Tuesday: Because I Love Lost Souls* -- Work to help others to heaven.
5. Wednesday: Because I Want To Grow* -- Work as an agent of personal growth.
6. Thursday: Because My Fruit Will Be Judged* -- Work viewed as a stewardship.

* Patrick will title these with his own titles. These are simply the message themes.